THE South-

Carolina Gazette.

From MONDAY April 23d, to MONDAY April 30th, 1750.

ROME, December 13.

IT is certain, that an Algerine Corſair made a Deſcent a few Days ago in the Neighbourhood of Albano, and the Crew were ſo daring as to advance up to the Ditch which encloſes the Pretender's Country-Houſe. The Pretender was actually there, with his Son the Cardinal of York; and had not his Servants been more numerous than the Barbarians, that Pirate might have had an Opportunity of ſelling both Father and Son to the higheſt Bidder.

Algier, Nov. 21. Immediately after the Departure of our Ambaſſador for England, an Embargo was laid on all Shipping, in order to the fitting out our Xeveques and Ships: The former are returned, and have brought in a new Ship built at Dantzick, of upwards of 800 Tuns, 26 Guns, and 40 Men, bound to Cadiz, called Auguſtus the Third, King of Poland, laden with Maſts, Planks, Pipe Staves, Wax and Isinnen; a Genoeſe Veſſel with Arms and Iron, from St. Andero to Cadiz; a ſmall Portugueſe Veſſel with Caſks and ſome Wooſſen Goods; a ſmall Genoeſe Veſſel with Wine and Brandy; and a French Brig. with Powder and Arms, bound to Guinea. The Turks pretend the ſaid Veſſel fired upon them, and have confiſcated the Cargo. Three of the Xeveques Crews were aſhore on one of the Canary Iſlands, and ſurprized a ſmall Fort, but were ſoon obliged to take to their Veſſels with the Loſs of near 40 of their People, and their Commodore, who was killed; however, they brought off 11 Slaves. On the 17th four Ships and two ſmall Xeveques ſailed from hence on a Cruize. There remains a new 60 Gun Ship lately launched, and the Dantzick Prize, which is deſigned to be fitted out with 60 Guns.

London, Dec. 26. 'Tis ſaid the Commiſſioners of Weſtminſter-Bridge will be allowed 12,000 l. this Seſſion, to enable them to compleat that Work.

There are Accounts by Yeſterday's Mail, that the Barbary Corſairs have taken a Portugueſe Ship and a Hambro' Ship off Cape St. Vincent, and likewiſe a large Sicilian Bark, laden with Drugs and other Merchandize, on the Coaſt of the Eccleſiaſtical State.

As it is apprehended, that Affairs of the greateſt Conſequence will be brought before the Houſe of Commons after the Holidays, it is hoped every Gentleman, who has any Regard to his Country, or to the Truſt repoſed in him by his Conſtituents, will not let his private Concerns prevent his Purſuit in Parliament, of what may tend ſo much to the Good of his Country. Let but that noble Spirit, which has ſo lately ſhewn itſelf againſt Miniſterial Influence, be continued; and a thorough Examination of what has been deteſted in one Office, be followed through that and a ſtrict Enquiry made into the reſt, it cannot be doubted but, with proper Reforms therein, and from the Savings that may be made, a further Shilling in the Pound of the Land-Tax may be taken off next Seſſions. ——If theſe Conſiderations will not prevail on Gentlemen to attend their Duty in Parliament, and to obey the Orders of the Houſe of Commons, for their perſonal Appearance on Monday the 15th of January, the Nation muſt look upon them, as Members unworthy of the Choice made of them.

We hear, the Bill to prevent Mutiny and Deſertion is committed for the 16th.

Laſt Sunday died, almoſt ſuddenly, John Lindſey, Earl of Crauford and Lindſey, and Viſcount Kilberney in Scotland, Lieutenant General of his Majeſty's Forces, and Colonel of a Regiment: His Lordſhip was Adjutant-General of the Forces in Flanders, and one of the ſixteen Peers of Scotland.

His Lordſhip was a Voluntier under Prince Eugene at the Battle of Crotzka in Hungary, and received ſo many Wounds that he was left in the Field of Battle, which Wounds obliged his Lordſhip to walk with Crutches ever ſince.

London, Dec. 30. The Briſtol and Kent Men of War, with ſeveral Tranſports, will ſoon ſail for the Mediterranean, to bring over the Chriſtian Slaves from Barbary.

Paris, Dec. 29. We continue to take up young Perſons of both Sexes, and couple them together before they are ſent down to Rochelle, from whence they are to be tranſported to our American Colonies.

They continue to labour diligently in the ſeveral Ports of this Kingdom, in building new Men of War, &c. and fitting up ſuch as are fit for Service. Our Miniſtry are likewiſe very intent upon enlarging our Commerce in the Eaſt Indies, and improving our Settlements in America.

London, Jan. 3. There are ſeveral Letters from Straſburgh, which mention extraordinary Diſpoſitions made for the Entertainment of a great Body of Troops, as well Horſe as Foot, which are expected in Alſace in ſix Weeks or two Months, and for the coming of which, ſo many different Reaſons are given, that it is evident the true one is not at all known.

Letters from the Hague dated the 6th Inſtant, mention, that a Deputation arrived there that Day from Amſterdam, with a Diploma in a Gold Box, appointing his ſerene Highneſs the Prince-Stadtholder, Governor General of the Weſt-India Company.

London, Jan. 4. The Lord Viſcount Garnock, Nephew to the late Earl of Crauford, ſucceeds him in Title and Eſtate in Scotland.

We hear, that the Earl of Sutherland and Lord Cartheart, are Candidates for one of the ſixteen Peers of Scotland, in the room of the Earl of Crawford deceaſed.

Paris, Jan. 2. The Vagrants, and other idle Perſons, which have lately been taken up in this City, are deſigned to people the White Iſland in America.

London, Jan. 6. Yeſterday arrived at Portſmouth, his Majeſty's Snow Hornet, Capt. Holwell, Expreſs from Barbados; by whom we have certain Advice, that the French are actually evacuating the Iſland of Tobago, and demoliſhing all the Works and Fortreſſes they had raiſed at Rocky-Bay, and in other Parts of the ſaid Iſland.

London, Jan. 9. Yeſterday Sir John Strange, Knt. kiſs'd his Majeſty's Hand at St. James's, on his being appointed Maſter of the Rolls, in the room of the Hon. William Forteſcue, Eſq; deceas'd.

Capt. Darley, late of Frazier's Regiment of Marines, is going to Nova Scotia, as chief Engineer for that Settlement; and his Engineers, from the Train of Artillery at Woolwich, will ſhortly embark for the ſame.

We hear, that the People of a certain Country are taking ſtrong Meaſures to prevent our going upon the Herring-Fiſhery.

Bruſſels, Jan. 5. The Fortifications of Dunkirk towards the Sea, are entirely razed, agreeable to the XVIIth Article of the Treaty of Aix la-Chapelle. The Wood Work above the Water's Edge was ſold for the Profit of the King, and what was under the Water left to the Poor, who in a very little Time left ſcarce a Stick of it.

Paris, Jan. 10. In the Conference which Lord Albemarle had a few Days ago with the Marquis de Puyſieux, concerning the great Military Preparations carrying on in this Kingdom, and the Diligence uſed in putting our Marine on a formidable Footing, the Marquis acquainted his Excellency, 'That France had nothing 'more at Heart than the Means of preſerving the Tranquility of 'Europe, and adjuſting the Differences which ſtill ſubſiſt between 'ſome Powers; and that the Moſt Chriſtian King would moſt cor-'dially and ſincerely concur with his Britannick Majeſty to bring 'about ſo ſalutary an End;' and concluded with alledging, among other Proofs of the ſincere Deſire of his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty to cultivate cultivate more and more a perfect Harmony with the British Court, the Orders he hath juſt ſent for evacuating St. Lucia, Tobago, &c.

Letters from Rome bring Advice, that the Right Hon. the Earl of Wintoun, (who was condemn'd to die in 1715, but eſcaped out of the Tower) died there the 30th of December laſt, N.S. aged upwards of 70 and was buried in the Place ſet apart for the Proteſtants.

'Tis reported that Horatio Walpole, Eſq; and Sir John Heathcote, Bart. will ſoon be created Peers of Great-Britain.

We hear that a Penſion of 400 l. per Annum is ſettled on a Perſon eminently concerned in the late Rebellion, for Services done by him.

We are aſſured there are three Ships now performing Quarantain in Stangate Creek, viz. the Samuel, and Elizabeth, from Smyrna, and one from Santa Cruz, having all foul Bills of Health.

The Phœnix, Carberry, of and for Briſtol, and the George, Webber, of Barnſtaple for Briſtol, both from Malaga, were taken the 25th of December, in Latitude 39 Deg. by five Algerine Men of War, notwithſtanding they had good Paſſports. A few Days after, the Mary, Galley, Capt. Monceur, from Zant, fell in with the George, on Board of which the Pirates had put ſix of their Hands, and retook her.

Thurſday an Expreſs arrived from Briſtol, with an Account, that the Phœnix having had ſome Algerines put on board her, the Engliſh Seamen roſe on them, and killed two, and ſoon made themſelves Maſter of the Ship, which is arrived at Briſtol.

The above Ship had a Mediterranean Paſs; which thoſe Fellows would not pay any Regard to.

The Right Hon. the Earl of Granville will ſhortly be appointed one of the Lords his Majeſty's Bed Chamber.

We are aſſured that two Perſons are under Confinement at Briſtol, for raiſing that wicked and villainous Pretence of the Plague having broke out there.

A Petition is preſented to the Hon. Houſe of Commons, ſign'd by a great Number of Gentlemen, &c. for an Act to build a Bridge over the Thames, from Hampton Court to Mouſley in Surrey.

London, Feb. 20. Sunday died, in Savage Gardens, Sir John Thomſon, Knt. and Alderman, Father of the City and Governor of the Ruſſia Company.

There is an Account that ſeveral Ships belonging to England were taken by the Algerines; but theſe Letters ſay, that Commodore Keppel has made ſuch ſtrong Remonſtrances to the Dey, as they had good Paſſes, that the Commander of the Men of War who took them would be brought to condign Puniſhment.

Paris, Jan. 5. O.S. It's now aſſured, that the Congreſs which has been ſo often ſaid was to be held at Cremona, will take Place the Beginning of April next, and that the Affair concerning the allodial Effects of the Houſe of Medicis would be regulated there; ſome Difficulties, it's ſaid, will be alſo removed in relation to certain Fiefs, which the Infant Duke looks upon as being Part of the Dutchy of Guaſtalla.

Copenhagen, Feb. 4. O.S. His Daniſh Majeſty is determined to augment his Marine with a certain Number of Gallies; and has accordingly iſſued out Orders for building ſeveral at the Port of Staveren, in Norway; and at the ſame Time ordered, that that Place for the future ſhould be diſtinguiſhed by the Name of Freidericksweld.

Paris, Feb. 23. By Advice from Bouchairy we hear, that the whole Regiment de la Ferre, who were in Garriſon in that City, had deſerted and made the beſt of their Way for Holland.

Genoa, Feb. 7. A Courier from Madrid has juſt paſſed through this City for Naples: He confirms the great Armaments making in the Ports of Spain.

Copenhagen, Feb. 14 Laſt Monday a Trial was made in the Preſence of ſeveral Officers, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, of a ſmall Piece of Cannon, invented by Capt. Steuben, of the Train of Artillery, who received great Applauſe on the Occaſion, the ſaid Cannon having been fired 24 Times in a Minute, without receiving the leaſt Damage.

London, Feb. 22. According to ſome Advices from the Hague, the States General have already drawn up a Placart, but not yet publiſhed it, appointing Wedneſday the 25th of March, for a Day of Faſting and Prayer in all the Cities and Places of the Union; in order (as is ſuppoſed) to beg of Heaven to make the People wiſer and better, that ſo the Republic may not only get out of her preſent Difficulties, but alſo eſcape the Calamities which we have Reaſon to expect from the black Clouds gathering in the North and South.

This Morning a Wardmote was held by the Right Honourable the Lord-Mayor, for the Choice of an Alderman for Dowgate Ward, in the Room of Sir John Barnard, now Father of the City, when Richard Glynn, Eſq; an eminent Wholeſale Oylman, was choſen without Oppoſition.

Vienna, Feb. 7. It is certain that the Court is compleating her Troops in Italy, and propoſes to augment them as ſoon as ſhe gets farther Light into certain Advices received within theſe 3 Weeks. It has likewiſe been reſolved to put the Netherlands in a Poſture of Defence; and the Maritime Powers are already acquainted with this Reſolution, and deſired to concur in this neceſſary Precaution.

Venice, Feb. 4. As the Situation of Affairs in Italy ſeem to be very tickliſh; and as this Republic are under ſome Apprehenſions that the Peace and Tranquility of that part of Europe, may very ſhortly be in ſome Meaſure interrupted, the Senate have been determined to be in Readineſs and duly prepared againſt any ſudden Rupture or Attack. For which Purpoſe, they have already iſſued out Orders for equipping ſuch a Number of Men of War, Frigates, Galliots, and other Veſſels as are fit for Service, as will form a very powerful Fleet by the beginning of the Spring.

Notwithſtanding the Orders above-mentioned, the Government are aſſiduouſly deliberating on the moſt effectual Ways and Means for putting all their Troops, both Foreign and Domeſtick, in a very ſhort time, on a very ſolid and ſubſtantial Footing; and 'tis conjectured by ſome, that new Regiments will be raiſed.

Madrid, Jan. 30. Eighteen Battalions have received Orders to be ready to march into Catalonia, there to be embarked. According to Advices from ſeveral Ports of the Kingdom, they are fitting out Men of War and Frigates with the utmoſt Diligence; and, 'tis ſaid, that different Squadrons of them are to put to Sea in the Spring.

Genoa, Jan. 27. The Affairs of Corſica are kept ſo ſecret, that except the Perſons concerned in the Government, no one knows any Thing relating to them.

Paris, Feb. 9. The Marquis de la Galliſſoniere, and M. de Silhonette, opened their Conferences laſt Tueſday, as Commiſſaries of the King, in order to act in Conjunction with thoſe of his Britannic Majeſty, in ſettling the Limits of America, and the reſpective Pretenſions of the two Courts to certain Poſſeſſions in thoſe Countries. 'Tis confirmed, that Marſhal Count Saxe is going to take a Journey into Germany, for which the neceſſary Preparations are already making.

London, Feb. 24. According to the laſt Advices from Dantzick, the King of Poland has wrote to the Magiſtrates of that City, to let them know that it would not be amiſs if they put their Fortifications in a good Condition: Hence they preſume, that it may not be long ere they ſee ſome Foreign Armies quartered in that Neighbourhood. Some Letters from Peterſburgh, by the way of Hamburgh ſay, that Matters are taking ſo good a Turn for a ſolid Accommodation between Ruſſia and Sweden, that even though his Swediſh Majeſty ſhould die, ſuch an Event would make no Alteration, either for the better, or worſe; but whether they ſpeak ironically is beſt known to themſelves.

They write from Paris, that a few more Regiments, chiefly Horſe, will ſpeedily file off to Alſace, and the Biſhopricks of Metz, Thoul, and Verdun.

We are aſſured, that Madraſs was ſurrendered to the Engliſh Commiſſaries, on the 11th of Auguſt laſt.

It's reported, that his Pruſſian Majeſty will take a Tour to Hanover, to have an Interview with his Britannic Majeſty.

They write from Chamberry of the 16th of February, N.S. that, according to the beſt Information they could get of the late Treaty concluded between France and Sardinia, it is ſtipulated, that the contracting Parties ſhall guaranty Don Philip's Territories in Italy, which has given no ſmall Umbrage to a certain Court, ſo that 36,000 Men are ordered from Germany to Italy.

By the laſt Advices from Berlin it appears, that Orders have been iſſued out for 40,000 Troops to aſſemble a Body early in the Spring.

We hear, that the French Miniſter at Stockholm, had declared at that Court, that in caſe are foreign Fleet ſhould appear in the Baltick next Spring, the King his Maſter was alſo reſolved to ſend another.
